Snapshot

I'm an adventurer. Not only do I love exploring the earth, but I thrive by tracking down the most current advertising & design trends.

I'm a Swiss Army Knife, who isn't afraid of grinding things out in the trenches, as well as overseeing projects from concept to finish.

Collaborative experience with all levels of designers and copywriters, as well as autonomous design.

Experience with photo and video shoots, directing, capturing, retouching & producing.

Direct client interaction experience with the ability to build relationships and understand client vision.

Assessing challenges and creating solutions since 2011.

Prioritize, organize and manage workload efficiently.

Positivity, inspiration and light over ego.
